HIMVIA

ROHRU, SHIMLA - HIMACHAL PRADESH

Himachal apples.
Built for more markets.

Profitable B2B fresh-produce business

2,500 tonnes

of apples handled per season

INR 30-40 lakh

seasonal revenue

INR 15-20 lakh

profit after expenses

Himvia apple operations, Himachal Pradesh

Swastik Sainseth | Sole founder

Investor presentation | October 2026

HIMVIA

Himvia in operation

Apple sourcing, grading, packing and transport from Rohru, Shimla.

2,500

tonnes of apples per season

100+

farming families in our network

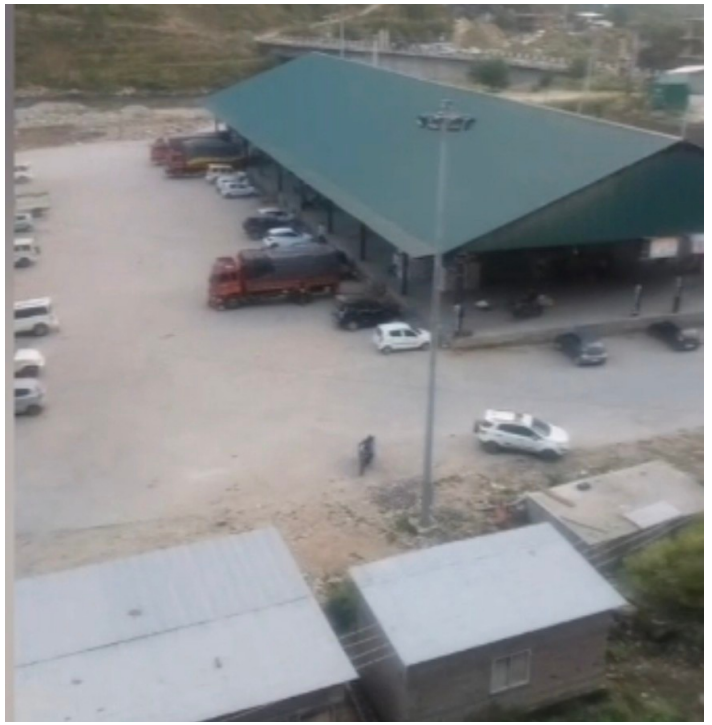

25+

seasonal workers managed

10-15

regular wholesale buyers

25 kg apple boxes | Apple season: July-October

The fruit market next to our operation

HIMVIA

Where the trade breaks down

A farmer customer with packed apples

Payment delays

Farmers often wait until the buyer pays. Delayed collections and defaults create pressure throughout the chain.

Supply consistency

Wholesale buyers need the right grades, quantities and packing across several suppliers.

Manual records

Calls, WhatsApp and paper records carry much of the work. Quality, dispatch and payments need to stay connected.

HIMVIA

Founder and operations

Swastik Sainseth

Sole founder | Managing grading and packing since 2024

Operational leadership

Managed 25+ seasonal workers and hired a manager to run daily grading and packing.

Buyer-specific packing

Introduced buyer-branded cartons and coordinated grading, packing and transport for wholesale orders.

Close to supply

Works with farmers and local brokers from a facility next to the fruit market.

Himvia grading equipment

HIMVIA

From buyer specification to the packed order

01 Agree the specification

Confirm grades, quantity, cartons, delivery date and payment terms.

02 Coordinate supply

Source through farmers and local broker partners.

03 Grade and pack

Prepare buyer-specific grades and cartons, with checks before dispatch.

04 Track delivery and payments

Coordinate transport, record dispatch and manage buyer and supplier settlement.

HIMVIA

How Himvia earns revenue

INR 30-40 lakh

revenue per apple season

INR 15-20 lakh

profit after expenses per season

Apple season: July-October

Brokerage

Commission on apple sales.

Grading and packing

Service fees for preparing and packing produce.

Cartons

Revenue from packaging sales.

EXPANSION Direct procurement and supply add a trading and fulfilment margin.

HIMVIA

More earnings from the same apples

Same-volume illustration: 2,500 tonnes = 100,000 boxes of 25 kg

NET RETAINED PER BOX	SEASONAL EARNINGS
INR 20	INR 20 lakh
INR 50	INR 50 lakh
INR 100	INR 1 crore

Illustration at 100,000 boxes. Retained earnings are after operating and credit costs.

What changes the economics

Buyer mix

Win repeat wholesalers, retail chains, institutional buyers and exporters.

Value per order

Buyer-specific grades, branded packing and direct supply can increase what Himvia retains.

Payment discipline

Buyer advances, credit limits and clear settlement terms support collections.

HIMVIA

A wider network. Year-round produce.

Expansion across buyers, crops and sourcing regions

01

Grow the buyer and broker network

Use local brokers as sourcing partners and serve more buyers through shared grading, packing and settlement standards.

02

Add crops and regions

Reuse buyer relationships and operations across crop calendars and sourcing regions to build year-round supply.

03

National and export distribution

Build order and payment tools, coordinate logistics partners and develop fulfilment hubs as the network grows.

HIMVIA

Funding Himvia's next stage

Our first external investment will expand an operating business.

Buyer growth and order funding

Acquire repeat buyers and finance confirmed supply orders. Use buyer advances and credit limits to support fulfilment and supplier settlement.

Order tools and an expanded team

Build inventory, order and payment tools. Standardise fulfilment across broker partners and add sales and engineering as the network grows.

Operating and currently unincorporated. Sole founder. No outside investment raised.

Swastik Sainseth

swastik776s@gmail.com

WEBSITE

himvia.onrender.com